FUNDRAISING REPORT – Stephanie Harland

-looking for prizes for the raffle - this has been difficult to get as businesses are tightening their purse strings

-putting on a free bbq for the kids on March 9

OLD BUSINESS

n/a

NEW BUSINESS

-Modular Farm owing $30,000 - Ashley has the funds to make $10,000 payment this year

-district has delayed the payments, but we will need to consider how we will manage payments in the future

-"Chef's in the Classroom" - teaches kids to grow their own food. Needs volunteers

-Further fundraising initiatives were spoken about:

- Direct appeal to parents via "School Cash Online" which would be a PAC donation & a Tax receipt would be issued
- Jennifer spoke about a PAC fundraiser that could be done with the students which would involve having students voting on an idea that incorporates teachers/admin in the school doing something that students would think is fun/silly/embarrassing. Ashley suggested having Grade 8 & 9 leadership students involved. Leadership students would come up with ideas for student body to vote on. Jennifer would email PAC executive & admin to help choose the ideas. The student body would purchase 'tickets' to vote on which idea they would like to see happen. Jennifer to contact Jasmine Nevelle & Kade Martinson to ask for assistance with this task.
